DIMENSION DATA ASIA PACIFIC NAMES NEW CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER

Singapore, 8 November 2011 – Dimension Data today announced the appointment of Andrew Cocks as Chief Technology Officer (CTO), a newly created role within Dimension Data Asia Pacific. Based in Singapore, Andrew will continue to lead and manage the Solutions Development Group as well as take on the role of central liaison and coordinator for the Asia Pacific region in the areas of technology leadership.

As CTO, Andrew will be monitoring emerging technology needs and trends across the Asia Pacific markets, and translating them into technology focus areas for the company's preparation of adopting new technologies in their go-to market initiatives. Andrew will also take on the responsibilities of communicating with internal and external stakeholders regarding the company's technology, innovation and trends. In addition, he will be representing the technology roadmap of Dimension Data to clients and potential clients in the region.

Andrew has more than 26 years of experience in the IT and Telecommunications industry, of which 17 years have been spent in Asia. He graduated with a degree in Electronic Engineering from the University of Sussex in the UK.
