F5 NAMES DIMENSION DATA AS ITS FIRST PLATINUM PARTNER IN EMEA

Company recognized for outstanding performance in client solutions in networking and security using F5 technology

London – 19 January 2016 – Dimension Data, the global ICT solutions and services provider, has been named by F5 as its first Platinum Partner in EMEA. The Platinum Partner status, is the highest level of recognition in F5’s Unity Partner Programme <https://f5.com/partners>

F5 helps organisations to seamlessly scale cloud, data centre and software-defined networking deployment to successfully deliver applications to anyone, anywhere, at any time.

Vangelis Tsingos Dimension Data Europe’s Director of Solutions said “Becoming F5’s first Platinum Partner for EMEA is another exciting milestone in our seven-year partnership. The F5 technologies are important cornerstones in our portfolio of networking, data centre, and security solutions. Working together with F5, our clients are connected and their applications and services are secure”.

Michael Schoenrock, Director, Channel and MSP, EMEA at F5 said, “Our partnership with Dimension Data in EMEA and worldwide is extremely important to the organisation as both companies strive to deliver applications without constraints to our joint customers.”
